Reflections on Philippians 4:6-9

St. Paul suggests that constant dialogue with God in prayer is a good way to prevent anything from robbing us of peace of soul, for prayer regulates our affections, directs our actions, corrects our faults, guides our conduct, beautifies and orders our life, and brings knowledge of things divine and human alike. It determines what we ought to do and reflects on what we have done, in such a way that our heart never becomes wanton or in need of discipline. (St. Bernard, “Book of Consideration”, I, 7).

PERPETUAL ADORATION

Please do not let the temporary loss of the Adoration Chapel prevent you from being faithful to a Holy Hour once a week. Commitment enhances the offering of our time to Jesus.

Jesus has remained in the Sacred Host for us so as to stay by our side, to sustain us, to guide us. And love can only be repaid with love so “ Go perseveringly to the Tabernacle...so as to feel safe and calm: but also in order to feel loved...and to love.” (St. Josemaria/ The Forge 837)
